

ILS 2012 International Conference

The International Conference on Information Systems, Logistics and Supply Chain (ILS International Conference) was founded in May 2004 by Valérie Botta-Genoulaz (INSA-Lyon Engineering School, France), Fouad Riane (Catholic University of Mons, Belgium), Nikolay Tchernev (School of Business Management Clermont Ferrand, IUP, France) and James Rappold (School of Business, University Wisconsin-Madison, USA).

The first edition was held in Lyon (France), May 14-17, 2006, and gathered more than 200 participants from 30 nationalities. 2 academic and 13 industrial plenary talks were given, 111 selected papers were presented in regular sessions and 3 workshops were organised. Moreover, 4 special issues of international journals were edited from extended version of communications presented in Lyon (EJOR, IJLSM, JOL and PPC). The second edition was held in Madison-Wisconsin (US), May 28-30, 2008. The third edition took place in Casablanca (Morocco), April 14-16, 2010.

This is a call for organization for the fifth edition of the ILS international Conference, which is planned for 2014.

Applications for the fifth edition according to the following template should be addressed before March 30, 2012 to the secretariat of the permanent board of the PAC: Diana Raulier (B): diana.raulier@fucam.ac.be.

The final decision among the candidates will be taken by the PAC members, within the scientific committee meeting that will be held during ILS 2012 conference Quebec.
